

MEMORIAL DAY ON MONDAY MAY 31ST

Annual Reception Fete This Year:
Sunday as the Exercises here will be held the Day Following.
Speaker not yet named.

Corporal Shelly Post S., Grand Army of the Republic, will observe Memorial Day this year, Monday, May 31st.

Post day will be observed all day forward when the usual time falls on Sunday has become an unwelcome law with the Grand Army. In spite of this, no definite orders looking to that end have been received from the department commandant, nor is there any definite arrangement for observing the day on the thirty first.

The committee having in charge the affairs of a post for the day have not yet announced the order. They have been in communication with the department commandant for some time and expect to have a speaker fully as well known as any who has spoken at the annual recent years. They have been hoping for some time past to make a definite arrangement for observing the day on the thirty first.

The day here promises to be as far as any of the past few years.

M. T. Shelly, Post Adjutant, agent of the Western Maryland railroad, was in town on Friday and stated that he had no desire to remain in town to observe Memorial Day on that day. Trains will come from Maryland, West Virginia and Pennsylvania to the station and Reading will bring its usual number of specials.

Independence Day, the year also falls on Sunday and "Jazz Band" will likely be observed on the fifth.

Banks note that Good Friday occurs an April 24th this year and the amount of business at that time of the year some banks in nearby towns consider it wise to close their doors on that date. It may well raise the question of whether or not business should be on a legal holiday week-end, and the law was given up.

A Romance of Moosehead Lake

By F. A. MITCHEL

Moosehead lake is situated in the northern part of Maine. The other lakes in the state are much larger, some being over twice as big as Moosehead, but the latter is away up in the mountains, and is visited by few people during the summer season, but is a favorite resort for those who like to go fishing.

There once lived a trapper on Moosehead lake, a widower with a daughter, who had been left a widow by her first marriage. Gertrude Fleming was the only child of the old man's life, and she was a woman of great beauty, but her mother was a ruined woman and had lost her child from that time. Her father was aware that young women might pass that way and would not let her leave him, but he did not notice that she was growing up.

He was a native of Gettysburg, having been born here on April 1, 1881, a son of John and Mary (Fleming) Miller, who had given up their early education at Gettysburg College and at St. Mary's College, Lancaster, later moving to Philadelphia, where they resided until their death.

For some years he had resided in Philadelphia, but had moved to New York City, where he had been a successful architect.

His father had died when he was a boy, and his mother had died when he was a young man, so he had to support himself.

Arthur Brown, a New York boy, was one of the first men to do business in the city, and he had made a fortune.

He had a brother, Fred, who had moved to Gettysburg, and he was a successful architect.

PLACE BOVILLE ON RURAL ROUTE

BETTER BUSINESS FOR TOWN PLANTS

Patron Mail Displeased With Order of Department Decreeing Efficient April First, But One Month

new instead of Four.

Residents of Idaville are greatly annoyed over the decree which will affect the mail service for some time to come as the result of an order from the Post Office Department at Washington. Under the decree the delivery of their mail from Idaville to Grand Haven Station, instead of received four months ago, will be delayed six days, and this will come by carrier from the Gordons Ferry. The Idaville residents are in favor.

An example of the trouble which it causes is that it is shown that a letter sent from Gettysburg to Idaville the day before the decree was issued will remain until the following morning, and the answer will be correspondingly delayed. It is the opinion of received many mailmen that the new law will only add to the time it will come by carrier from the Gordons Ferry. The Idaville residents are in favor.

In a further effort to shorten this service the Idaville post office will remain in the ultimate disaccordance of the new law, and will continue to justify keeping the place open.

Idaville route now starts from Gordons Ferry.

For some time the change has been threatened and Idaville citizens have used every means at their command to prevent what they consider a heavy and an unfair discrimination. All mail dispatched for Idaville from Gettysburg has been delayed since the time that it was taken by carrier earlier to Idaville. The town of Idaville is a half mile from the station so that the delay is not due to the fact that it is not ready to take the train and, if it is, there is always the risk that the train will be late.

The residents of the town have not yet given up the fight and will endeavor to secure a return of the system which had existed until now, that is, to suffer a very great inconvenience.

BOY WINS PRIZE FOR THIRD TIME

Salem Agents of Roosa and Bettis, Furniture Factories Here to Increase Business Coming in Short Time, Early Indications Show.

That the two local furniture factories will soon begin to increase their output, is the statement made by L. J. Parsons and William Bettis, sales manager and general manager of the Salem Furniture Company.

According to these men, who have been closely watching the sales of the furniture, there is a decided improvement in business for the Gettysburg area.

The first prize this year is awarded to Harry Felt, a member of the Gettysburg chapter of the Boy Scouts. The award was given on May 10, when the competition was opened at the hotel. Eighteen were submitted by members of the school, all on the same subject. The young essay will receive $50 in gold and $100 in travel expenses.

The second award of $25 will go to May Hollinger, a member of the Junior class; the third award, an engraved certificate, to Cleve Moore, a member of the Senior class.

Other awards will go to Mildred Stinner, a Junior, in an engraved certificate.

These judges placed over the work of the girls and boys, Dr. J. A. Himes, Dr. R. S. Goyer, and Dr. D. Keith Ellsworth.

In former years the competition was open to all the members of the school and in one year an "outstanding achievement" award was given to the first prize. In another year Rodgers Massmann captured the five dollar award.

The remaining normal business conditions will make the two factories which have come to mean so much to the town and the surrounding area, even more important.

Mr. Bettis will be heavily involved, once again, in the promotion of the schools in the various topics which have been given them for study and their subsequent essay writing.

RECALL LAST FOUR SPELLERS

Pupils Misled. One Word for Answerer and Dropped out of Contest. Will Start off again This Week.

Edward Mummert, the Abbotsford school boy who captured first place in the county spelling contest, and his three spelling partners in the competition, were unable to get a bicycle to get home, and after it was over made the trip home in the same manner. They had been in the cold and wet weather of the past ten weeks. And it was all in vain for the match is just about over.

Edgar M. Brown, of Bigerville, and Charles Taylor, of Butler township, who ranked third and fourth in the competition, also had to leave without "alliance" with an "e," and after the match called the attention of Dr. Dian to the fact that they had a word "alliance" pronounced by name as the word on which they went down. The definition was not given, and the two boys were given a thousand word list so that Prof. Roth pronounced "alliance" they could have a chance to get the word of knowledge to which he referred and not the word meaning "the act of assembling".

It will be recalled that they made the mistake and the youngsters were greatly disappointed for they had been told that the word was the answer for the event. They were game, however, and did not ask for a re-matching. Prof. Roth suggested at that time that the two boys go to court room and reshave the notch but Miss Stevens and Mr. Taylor both said it was better to let it stand and take it up again. The congratulatory Mummert and left for their homes, feeling that another year would provide them with a chance to retrieve their defeat.

Prof. Roth did not view it in that way and felt that the two boys and the four spellers should meet again, and accordingly he is now arranging to have the two parties agree to a meeting to settle the question.

It will be an exciting event for all four are experts in the study and when the two parties meet again we trust they will likely have a large audience.

John McGaughey who stood second is the fourth member of the "dear."

ENVIRY RECORD

Gettysburg Pastor Has been in Ministry for Fifty Four Years.

T. J. K. Miller, pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, has been in ministry on Sunday's while few days away on his sabbatical. He has been actively engaged in the Christian ministry for fifty-four years. During this long time he has not missed a single Communion service. Thirty one years of this time has been spent in Gettysburg during which time he completed his studies at the seminary and Sunday School here have gone forward.

Dr. Hartman's first year was a year under discouraging circumstances, many members of the congregation giving him little support. He soon learned that he had come here to have more than all. This condition, of course, did not last long, and there was one year of his pastorate when his single death occurred among his members.

FORBID SELIGMAN TO HOLD SERVICE

Gatetburg Minister Escorted from Mount Alto Sanitarium Grounds by Two State Officers. Objected to Recent Sermons.

As the result of orders of State Health Commissioner Samuel G. Dinsmore, of Pennsylvania, Rev. W. H. D. Dinsmore, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and Dr. John Roth, president of the Tri-District Association as minister at the White Pine Sanitarium at Mount Alto, were denied permission to conduct services at the institution. The state officers stated that the minister from the church was guilty of heresy in his recent action.

Dr. Dinsmore bases his action on the fact of a statement made by Rev. Mr. Dinsmore recently, that at a meeting in which little children were present he had said that the commandments were charges or to the moral conduct of patients and of the Catholice.

The complaints against Mr. Seligman are covered in the following letter from Dr. Dinsmore to him.

Mount Alto, April 2, 1912.

COUNCIL TO ASK FOR STANDPIPE

West敦定 Acceptance or Rejection of Plan from Water Company. Will Put Gas Plant By-Product at All Town Streets.

Instructions to take up immediately with the Gettysburg Water Company the question of the erection of a standpipe, to give the town sufficient capacity to meet fire demands, were given a committee of Tuesday evening's meeting of the town council.

The committee, consisting of Messrs. Gilbert, Stock, and Keith, were asked to find a definite reply from the water company as to whether they would erect a standpipe, the implication being that if the concern refused, the town council would then take action.

Instructions were given immediately to the commissioners of the Public Service Commission to have a committee appointed to meet with the Public Service Commissioners. It was recommended that the town road would probably be demanded should the standpipe be built. The borough for years has been paying $100 a day.

Commissioners were a unit in denouncing the dust nuisance, unbearable and unsanitary, which apparently the removal of stumps now prevailing does in that condition. After hearing all the evidence, the commissioners directed the highway committee to start work to-day sweeping the streets of the town.

Some of the commissioners favored the treatment of all the streets with tar late in the spring. It is estimated that it would cost $100 a day to do this, if done, the plan is to have the borough pay the entire expense, although the commissioners did not believe it could be done.

W. E. Emmons was recommended as methodical and frank, and was selected to open the market on Saturday, May first. He will be authorized to sell the produce of the Farmers' Square at $10 instead of $8 on most mornings as he deems it best.

Commissioner Nichols was accepted and James Nichols, manager of the firm, was granted leave to appear before the court for appointment to fill his place during his term. Mr. Nichols is a former member of the town council and his term was marked success.

Commissioner Nichols asked for seven lights on Baltimore Street, one on each block between the Square and the National Cemetery. Action was deferred for a week.

A request of Five Club for fifteen new rubber coats was referred to the highway committee for action.

The highway committee was instructed to proceed with the building of the new bridge over the creek after the next meeting of commissioners.

Upon request of Councilmen Daingerfield, the laying of a crossing on East Market Street was deferred until further notice.

A bill of $100 was voted by the W. E. Emmons Electric Company for services in preparing the municipal light system, and the bill was referred to the Public Service Commission to be tabulated.

The company has already received payment of $100, and the sum was understood to cover everything.

Pavements were ordered at the proposed site of the new water tower on the W. E. Emmons Electric Company property, East Middle street. Henry Kellman, engineer, was given attention to the roadway on Main Street.

The committee on the conduct of the election of police reported that nothing but honest work had been done.

They were discharged and asked that they be discharged.

The request was granted.

FOREST FIRES

RODE RUNAWAY AUTO INTO BANK

Car Got Beyond Control on Long Hill and Approaching Buggy Made Collision Imminent. Car Damaged and One Woman Hurt.

Locomotive used to hold the passenger automobile, as he was descending Heywood Hill west of Fairfield Tuesday afternoon, into Woods of York, who was driving a team of horses in order to prevent serious injuries to himself and the other passengers of the car.

Woods was visiting his mother, Mrs. Woods of Fairfield, and his son, Mr. Kate Sample also of Woods had been visiting his mother for several days and on Tuesday took her and the remainder of the party to the home of his son, who was returning over Jack's mountain road and was descending the long, steep hill from Heywood Hill a short distance west of the town when the horse, which had been holding the wagon, suddenly stopped. The team struck and Mr. Woods, fresh from a serious accident confronted him if he did not stop the car before it ran over the danger.

To increase still further the danger of a very serious mishap a team approaching car and with the road very narrow at that point, it looked as though the two must meet. A collision was inevitable.

He accordingly told it straight into the side of the road. Fortunately the machine was now overturned and no one was thrown out.

After the accident, Mr. Woods found that, although it was nearly a mile from the nearest place, nearly everybody about the scene could still run it under its own power and he returned the trip to Fairfield in time to get a doctor to attend to him.

The car was reported to-day as being along the road and suffering from serious injuries as a result of their experience.

The Best Women's Suits You Ever Saw at moderate prices—Wooltex, of course

BY special co-operation with the manufacturers of Wooltex tailored garments we have been able to assemble this remarkable collection. The models are wonderfully handsome, and in great variety. The materials are the popular gabardines, serges, poplins, voilets and checks.

The illustration shows just four of the many superb designs.

When you consider that every material is absolutely sound; that every fabric has been selected because of its superior qualities, and its correctness of style—

When you examine the list of the garments you will find that they are all good—

When you buy beautifully the garments are made, and are shown with what care and thoroughness every seam is run, and every vital point of tailoring is executed—

When you turn to the garments and see how they compare to the figure, and how soft and elegant they feel—

When you realize the beautiful lines are not bothered up by stiff seams, but are tailored into a line which will retain its shapeliness during the life of the garment.

You will be amazed that garments of such elegance, refinement and general superiority can be bought for such reasonable prices as are marked on them.

Descriptions of the Suits Illustrated :
• The suit at the left, picture No. 1795, is adapted from a Paquin model. The placket folds over diagonally, and the collar is turned back.

• Suit No. 1796 at the right is in a smart Polo effect; well cut on plain lines, with moderate fullness; finished with small pockets on both sides of the skirt. Made in checks, poplin and voile.

Many other Wooltex models at $25.00, $30.00 combine variety and excellence that are absolutely unique. Many cities have agents who are personally to appreciate fully their extraordinary value.

When may we have the pleasure of showing them to you?

MET JUST LIKE MEADE AND LEE

We Formal Announcement Group
Assaults of Troops to Get-

Jail All Given Honoring.

"No, it was not an assumed responsibility that we have here—but we met at Gettysburg like Lee and Meade, without any conscious arrangement," said John C. Thompson, a member of the group who were arraigned before Square Hill on Tuesday after having spent a week in jail.
The group had been held in the railroad yards Monday afternoon by Sheriff Thompson and Detective William H. Thompson.

"It was this way," he continued.

"We are mostly umbrella members; members of the community who have got hold of a little home change.
We bought some houses, had a party, and here we are. If you just give us the money back, we will be all right, and not bother you any more."

The money came from every direction, from business men, from the police house, as Carlisle, and Frank Morton, who are his well placed friends, were held for trial on a robbery under color of right.

DIAMOND CUT DIAMOND

By RUTH GRAHAM

HARRY Harkness and Arthur Trout, both plain dealers, met in California years ago, when the country was full of diamond cutters, and each gave the other the ground that proved to make them rich. Within a little more than a year, however, Harry had some money, and the partners had him of their side, and the partner's son, a wealthy interest.

Arthur had some money, and the partners had him of their side, and the partner's son, a wealthy interest.

Harry was too busy a teacher for anything else, so he left the business over to Trout for Harry to have a quiet conversation with the two men involved, he had found Trout so much to his taste.

It will be recalled that, just before the time of the suspension of the faculty, it was announced that eight of their number had been removed for the remainder of the year for various reasons. This action was taken by the faculty.

The student council, before whom the faculty had been suspended, had acted in various charges, because it had reported them to the faculty.

Trout finally concluded them that the faculty had been suspended for various reasons in California.

If the world gives him a chance to show his talents, he will succeed.

CITIZENS MUST PAY FOR OILING

Se Councilmen Decide at Ad-journed Session, Initiate Steps Taken toward Building of Permanent Streets.

Council on Monday evening failed to sustain the attitude taken at their last meeting and decided to place all and taxes on the streets, which were previous to owners pay toward the expense.

The idea expressed earlier in the month was that the money would be used to help pay for this method. It was stated that Monday night, in not followed in any other section in this session and would entail too great a drain on borough resources.

Mr. Gilbert reported having ordered a carload of sand, the cost of which would be around the same purpose would be provided at three cents, plus the cost of labor.

The committee was instructed to purchase for trial purposes fifteen or twenty barrels of oil at such as Mr. Stock recommended.

For having the streets repaired, property owners will be expected to pay one cent per square foot on all paved streets, and six cents on the wood streets, or $1.20 and $1.80 for a forty-foot lot.

This will be about two-thirds the cost of the paving, which will be charged for preparing the streets and making the application.

The amount of money required for improvement of the streets was brought up during the evening and Messrs. Gold, Miller, George Douglass, and Bertram Atkinson suggested to go to Harrisburg to ascertain from the State Highway Department what aid could be obtained.

The main streets of Gettysburg are on the state road system. It is believed that the state has been instrumental in the construction of the new roads.

Councilmen brought up the liability of the transit company to pay for the paving of the streets, and it was stated that they could be compelled to do so. Failing to comply, it was stated, the transit company would lose the privilege of tarring up the tracks.

In a discussion with a member of the Gettysburg town council, Burgess Stokes of Hanover related the manner in which on their new paved streets the drivers of buggies, a buck wagon thirty, four feet in width with load, of the express, Stokes, and his wife, had to wait the eight feet for the passing vehicles on the one side of the street one-third of the remainder, those on the other side of the street, Stokes, had toough the last third. This action can be taken without resorting to a vote of citizens, as the paving must be made from the property owners.

At the same time, it is argued, those directly benefited pay a reasonable amount, and the remaining portion of the plan would not be a great drain on the treasury.

Many citizens and some members of the town council look with favor on a plan to build squares of improved roads patterned after the first block of Main Street, which was laid two years ago and—bearing places where it was dug up in order to lay a new street with the fact to which it has been agreed. Under the plan followed in Hanover the cost of each block of a street would be borne by the property owners having built it at an approximate cost of $100. If state and county aid are given, the property owners assessed, each square that kind built in Gettysburg would cost the taxpayers only a few hundred dollars.

If the plan is adopted, in the town, the town would have a street which would not require constant attention.

Burgess Eicholtz's plan of having a red electric car light for the night police in the middle of College Square met with the opposition of some citizens who was given authority to have placed. The Burgess was also given another opportunity to have the car, in response to a discussion of councilmen, stated that persons violating the law in the open spaces would be dealt with summary.

A lengthy discussion was held on the merits of the Board of Health's proposal of requiring a twenty day quarantine for the diseases of smallpox and measles. Mr. Keith was of the opinion that council could not pass ordinances because he did not have the power and could not interfere with regulations made by the local board, provided that they were not in conflict with the laws of the province or the State Board of Health.

Opponents were of the opinion that the proposal of the Board of Health was good, but that the time should be shorter. A smart little costume was shown to the councilmen, which well carried out in taste, twill silk, with a large bow and the sash was decorated with various pockets. Four and one-half yards of fabric were required to make the coat.

The cost of the coat was $1.50, and the cost of the pockets $1.00.

Pictorial Review Pattern No. 6190.

Jaquards and simple youthfulness are the distinguishing features of this pattern. The blouse has a wide belt and the sash with a wide bow.

Outerwear is as necessary as the blouse, and the coat is a good example of the style. A smart little costume is well carried out in taste, twill silk, with a large bow and the sash was decorated with various pockets. Four and one-half yards of fabric were required to make the coat.

The cost of the coat was $1.50, and the cost of the pockets $1.00.

dances and the rising of the time of report rather than the onset of the disease for dating quarantines.

The newer committee was instructed to take the steps necessary to open the open sewer which extends the Thirteenth Street. The board suggested to have the sewer open again.

Robert S. Bream asked for a crossing on West Middle street.

John C. Johnson moved that a four foot concrete crossing be laid there and then covered and the motion, being the only name, passed.

OTHER DYNAMITE VICTIM RECOVERS

Tells Wild Story of how Explosive Accidentally Detonated, Saw Ranger Use Late to Make His Escape. Recovered now Answered.

Clear Stine, who was seriously injured in a dynamite explosion on his farm near New Haven, Ind., April 18, will probably be sufficiently recovered to warrant his dismissal from the York Hospital in a few days. He is now able to give a clear story of the accident.

He says that he was not going to blow up his barn, but was unable to get away. Once Slaughter, the man who was killed, had just lit the fuse and was about to run out in the ground, and instead of throwing the match away, he held it in his hand and ran and fled out of the house. Slaughter had eight full sticks of dynamite. Mr. Stine says he saw the head of the match protruding from under the mat, and knew what was coming. Stiner was on his knees looking over the bushes when he heard a noise less than ten feet away, saw smoke coming from it. Instantly came the shank and he saw the body of Slaughter lying there. Now the body of Slaughter lies buried in a hole in the ground.

By main force of grit, Mr. Stine is still standing. He has a deep gash in his left leg, which was unseated above the knee, but is not serious.

The doctor who treated him has given him no state that if his condition continues to improve, he may have to leave the hospital on Saturday, but if it does not improve, he will be admitted as a hopeless case.

Department Store Accused.

Is an undertaking like a department store the satisfaction and pride of the business world? Is it not a fact that it is regarded as one of the real assets. There have been many recent demonstrations of the integrity of the trade. The same fine treatment of women does a lot toward making the American Man. Tasted in the American Man.

Woman Punished with the Name.

Berlin, April 21.—Dissatisfied with the name of "John," a woman here, said she had the Meeko county office to the bank to buy from the country. She was told that she could not do so. TOWN INVENTOR SECURES PATENT

CHILD KILLED IN FALL FROM CRADLE

Appliances to Mend Steel Tops Signed to Save Many Hours' Work for Engineers, Product of Gandy's Mind.

Edgar M. Hertzell, of Gettysburg, has secured a patent for an invention which is likely to prove of great value to surveyors and civil engineers throughout the country. Mr. Hertzell, whose name has been connected with this part of the National Park Commission's work and who has this year been engaged in the detailed work which his invention is intended to make, said:

"The patent has been secured on a very simple and is designed for saving time and for temporary staking up which are widely used in engineering. They are used in surveys, diversions of employment, some time for an entire day, a day or six or eight weeks, or even longer. They have their own base and then a new tape can be secured. Other effects have been made to increase the speed of work by quickly setting up bases and have yet been found which will hold."

Mr. Hertzell's appliance is a small steel frame which is easily set up and of an ellipse. The broken pieces are inserted from either end and held tightly in place by a screw which can be turned with ordinary pen-knives. The contrivance is small and easily handled, and an made that the tape can be attached to it without the use of a tooth or inch after which the work may proceed with a delay which need not exceed one minute."

"Thousands of these bases are used in this country every year and double-sure losses from them break while surveying parties are at work. I believe there will be great demand for Mr. Hertzell's invention, especially if it is placed on the market. It is his desire to give the public all the rights, that is, to attempt to make the change himself."

The application for patent was pending since last July and notice of its having been granted has just now been received.

Little Tot Throws in Floor when Cris Tilt Rock Broken and Seats Round are Found by Eddie and Mother.

With his brother, the little boy of Raymond Henry Laughman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Laughman, of Gettysburg, was found on the floor of his room when he awoke this morning. The child was about one year old.

Mr. Laughman had put his two children to sleep about one o'clock and had then gone downstairs to do some work. About half past one he heard the children and was horrified to find the younger one lying on the floor. When he bent over him he found him cold in death. In one little hand was clutched a key, which it is believed he had taken from his mother's purse.

The credits of the old fashioned kind with rockers—had been played out not far from a door, and were scattered on the floor. The boy had run to the bright bay and tried to get in, with the result that the cradle had fallen over and the child had been crushed.

A physician, who was summoned, found that the neck had been broken. The parents and the other child were greatly distressed.

The funeral was held on Monday at eight o'clock from the house. The casket was made in Fisher's cemetery.

The Unarmed Ranchman

By JOHN TURNER

When MacDonald left his home in Edinburgh for the West Wild in Africa he expected to be shooting but he was not armed. Nothing troubled him so much as to have a difficulty with any one, and he was a favorite of his friends and told him:

"It seems to me, Mac, that you will be in a difficult position when there is no law except gun law."

"I won't be troubled," was the reply. "I'll not let any man come near me and if I have to fight I'll try to arrange for a substitute."

"You're likely to effect such an arrangement; you're not alone in a land of savages."

MacDonald reached his home to entertain the inhabitants of the country by going about without his gun. He was warned by friends that such a course was a very dangerous one, but he did not listen to them, while some of his neighbors did not injure his neighbor. But there were men who had come to the country to hunt and Macdonald would not hesitate to shoot any one who came near him.

MacDonald refused to be converted and continued to ride over the country, shooting at any animal he could see.

The trouble he had was with a neighboring rancher named H. W. Hines, who insisted on claiming Macdonald's land as his. Hines had a herd of cattle which he had brought with him.

23 DEER ARE SEEN

Deer are unusually plentiful on the Blue Mountain foothills now.

Saturday morning with a total of twenty-three animals roamed near Caledonia park. Wednesday evening a herd of eleven deer were seen in the same park area in the cultivated field in the rear of Graeffenberg Inn.

Forrest Rangers Thomas and Stoll found themselves brought into Carbaugh Run near the Sheepertown restaurant a dead doe and two fawns. They had to wade through waist deep water to get to the carcass. The carcass showed it had been attacked and eaten by coyotes. A young deer shot in the water had died from exhaustion or drowning.

Monday morning another deer was found completely devoured in the Conococheague within the Caledonia park limits, near the Sheepertown restaurant. It had taken to the water for its own safety, torn and driven by dogs. It had died there in torture within the park boundaries.

The people in the neighborhood of Caledonia are using every available means to protect the deer from marauding dogs. They have not been entirely successful.

INSANITY PLEA FAILS TO ACQUIT

Joseph McNease Was Found Not Guilty, in County Court, on which to Ask Acquittal. Jury fails to see fit that way.

Beneath a technical defect in the indictment charging Paul Glass with the killing of his wife, the defense against him was confined this morning to August 10, of Court. It was pointed out that the indictment was not filed out and that to all intents and purposes the offense was committed in the year "19" instead of 1914. The defense's attorney, G. W. Weaver Key, indicated was a rather lame issue. Contingence was denied and the omission will be re-visited.

Amos Wilkerson, and William Glass, accused of breaking, and having entered the home of the deceased, came up on sentence on Saturday. The case grew out of thefts and about $100.

After hearing several witnesses in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Amos Clinch and John Mayers, of Littlefield, Morris, the Court directed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty. The case involved the charge of breaking and entering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glass, on Sunday at West Hillard, Littlefield. The other cases against Mr. Mayers and Clinch were continued to August term of Court.

The principal witness for the prosecution was Constable George G. Snyder, of Littlefield, who stated he had been bought out at the hotel on May 24, 1914. Other witnesses claimed for the defense that they could not substantiate his testimony, and it was shown that others, some time after the date of the trial, had signed his name to himself signed Mayers' lawyer application.

Harry Morris, when called, stated emphatically that he was not with Detter as the day in question, and Harry Morris, who said that he had seen an hour or two before the trial, was not the one on whom Constable Grunder had based his information.

The defense, however, rested their case after hearing these statements as the attorneys asked that the Court direct the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty" and their contention was granted.

Diamond, Clegg, Wilde, and Wm. A. McClellan represented the Commonwealth, and William H. Harlan and J. Donald Swett the defendants.

John Mayers and James Clegg on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday, and on charges of breaking and entering into the home of the deceased, were the Court on Monday afternoon took up the trial of Thomas and John Paul Glass, and Peter M. McNease, who were accused by E. J. Jones, well known cigar manufacturer, of assault and battery.

It was also shown that the offense was committed in Mr. John's office on January 20, 1915 and followed a refusal of the defense to accept the services of M. E. Bergendoll, magazine solicitor, pleaded guilty to three charges of false advertising and the W. W. Paul pled guilty to a charge of perjury.

The Court will follow the course of imposing sentence on Saturday.

Win. Arch. McLean presented a petition signed by 250 voters of the First Ward, asking that the place of election be changed from the Littlefield Hotel to the New Engle House, The petition was signed by Frank Clegg, reported the bridge over the Little Conewago, near Dahl's Mill, to be in a dangerous condition. The Attorney was instructed to call the attention of the State Highway Department to it. The committee of engineering took up the matter and in the road rear of Dahl's Mill, the Double Bridge and north of Holtwood, the bridge was found to be in a dangerous condition. Wm. W. Weller, who was instructed to notify the county supervisor to have the bridge repaired.

Upon petition, J. D. Shaffer was appointed judge of elections in Littlefield. No. 10 of Tyrone, Pennsylvania, all of which was the result of removal of G. K. Walker from the position. The Court rejected the application of G. K. Walker, and the Commonwealth of John H. Shaffer, who was appointed to jail to overturn the action of the court of law.

The private sale of the property of the late J. Edward Schreier, of Gatheyburg, to W. Edens Schreier, of Philadelphia, for $1000 was confirmed.

The private sale of land in Mt. Pleasant, belonging to the estate of Mrs. Little, was confirmed, the purchaser being William M. Myers, of Mt. Pleasant, who paid $1000. The election of Robert E. Rutter, administrators of the estate of Mrs. Esther Rutter, of the town of Quaker, and Otto Pfeifer, insurance companies were called for trial on Thursday, while April 1, 1905, the trial of the suit between the state and the taking of testimony against the state will be held in the afternoon.
